

PUDDING RIVER

Wine Cellars

2008 Reserve Pinot Noir

Product Notes: Our Reserve Pinot Noir is produced from a single block of Pommard clone, from Amalie Robert Estate, Dallas, Oregon. The vineyard consistently produces some of the ripest and most concentrated fruit we've found in the Willamette Valley.

Appellation: Willamette Valley, USA

Varietal Composition: 100% Pommard Clone Pinot Noir

Harvest Data: Harvested October 15, 2008
Brix - 23.0
Crop Load - 2 Tons/Acre

Wine Chemistry: pH - 3.77
TA - 6.0 g/L
Alc. - 13.4%

Vineyard Source: Amalie Robert Estate, Dallas, Oregon

Cellar Treatment: Fermented with commercial yeast strains.
Aged 12 months in 100% French oak on original yeast lees
50% new French oak
Full malolactic fermentation

Date Bottled: December 4, 2009

Production: 57 cases (750 ml)

Release Date: November 26, 2010

Tasting Notes

Fragrant with floral and spice overtones that lead to raspberry and cream flavors. Finishes smooth with supple texture. Pair with grilled salmon or roasted duck.